In G.O.Rt.No.804, dt.28.9.07, orders were issued for “stoppage of increment without cumulative effect for a period of 2 (two) years” against Sri T.Narayana, Head of CCP Section, Government Polytechnic , Nellore on the charges that he failed to recoup the advances of Rs.6,100/- & Rs.2,600/- and also made up of purchase bills with the help of sellers .

2. Aggrieved by the above order, the individual filed appeal on 17-10-2008. Government after careful consideration rejected his appeal vide Govt. Memo.No16335/VC.II/2009, dt.13-8-2009. However, the individual again filed an appeal petition dt.24.7.09. for dropping of further action and reducing the punishment of stoppage of increment without cumulative effect for one year instead of two years, awarded by the Govt. as it is affecting his promotion chances.

3. Government re-examined the case and felt that the punishment imposed is disproportionate to the charges held proved and decided to partly allow the appeal filed by the individual.

4. Government, therefore, after careful consideration decided and order to reduce the punishment imposed from stoppage of increment without cumulative effect for a period of 2 (two) years” to “stoppage of increment without cumulative effect for a period of 1 (one year) against Sri T.Narayana, Head of CCP Section, Government Polytechnic , Nellore.
